Edinburgh is hosting the 2019 Annual Meeting of the British Isles Paediatric, Ophthalmology & Strabismus Association (BIPOSA). The programme over the three days will include symposia on Paediatric corneal disease, techniques in paediatric assessment, Challenging strabismus cases, Restrictive strabismus disease, Visual impairment and special needs, Technology and innovation in paediatric ophthalmology, free paper sessions and e-poster displays. The Wednesday will focus mainly on paediatric ophthalmology and Thursday/Friday will focus on paediatric and strabismus topics

Prof. Asim Ali - Claud Worth lecturer

Prof Anita Simmers – Trimble Lecturer

The meeting is of interest to all ophthalmologists who sub specialise or have an interest in paediatric ophthalmology and / or strabismus surgery, orthoptists who are specialists in children's vision assessment and eye movement problems, and allied professionals with an interest in paediatric ophthalmology & vision problems.

BIPOSA attracts one point of CPD teaching per hour

Venue

This three-day meeting will take place at The Assembly Rooms in Edinburgh. The meeting venue details, travel and accommodation information are available on the website at www.biposa.org

Registration

Registration opens on 01st February 2019, and the early bird rate applies if you pay in full before 04th July 2019.

There are options to register for one, two or three days. For orthoptists only there is a special two-day rate for those who want to attend Thursday/Friday only. Fully paid up BIPOSA members ONLY receive an additional members discounted rate. Please note that your membership is valid subject to approval by the Executive Committee plus payment of an annual subscription fee (currently £50 for orthoptists, associate members & £100 for consultant ophthalmologists). Invoices will be issued on production of a valid Hospital Trust Purchase Order only

Dinner

The annual dinner will be a sit down meal followed by a disco and bar open until midnight at the fabulous Dynamic Earth. Tickets are priced £60 each
